

Name:

Email:

Address:

Phone Number:

Marital Status:

Dependents:

Education (Degrees and dates obtained and schools attended beginning with high school):

How long have you been at your current church:

Years you have been a senior pastor:

Churches or missions served and locations:

Why are you considering a call to a new church:

Briefly share the story of your personal spiritual development, including how you came to a personal faith in Christ:

List what your top five priorities would be, in order of importance, as a Senior Pastor

How involved should the congregation be in planning and leadership of the church? Describe your management style:

Describe your approach to preaching and what you are trying to accomplish in that time:

How do you deal with controversial issues from the pulpit and in ministry generally? Please give examples:

Ten years from now, how would you envision the church that you serve:

What has attracted you to our church:

Do you prefer a traditional or more contemporary approach to worship services? Please explain why:

Describe your pastoral style:

Describe your financial philosophy regarding stewardship/pledging, savings, investing, and credit card usage:

What have you found to be the most challenging ministry area in your current church:

What ministry have you found to be the most satisfying:

Describe how you deal with generational differences within a congregation:

How do you equip people to discern God's will:

What gifts would you bring to the church:

If married, how do you picture your spouse's involvement in the ministry:

How do you motivate people to be involved and engaged in the Churches ministry:

What are your weaknesses that you perceive? That others perceive:

What do you see as your strengths? What feedback from others have you received regarding your strengths:

Please give an example of your ministry involvement with the community beyond your local church responsibilities:

What are some of the activities you and/or your family enjoy outside of the Church:

Additional comments or thoughts: